LIFE OF GEORGE TICKNOR.

Published This Day:
LIFE, LETTERS, AND JOURNALS OF GEORGE TICKNOR.

Author of "The History of Spanish Literature," etc. With Biographies of Sted and Portman, and a Biography of Mr. Ticknor's Library. 2 vols. $10. Vol. I. $5. Vol. II. $5. A few biographies such as few biographies can claim. Mr. Ticknor's audience as a scholar and author gives peculiar weight to the record of his life.

His life, his labors, his interests, and his influence, both in America and Europe, make his letters and journals unusually rich and valuable in anecdotes, records, descriptions, and comments. Among the names in figure in these volumes are the Adamses, Jefferson, Webster, Everett, Prescott, Agassiz, the Bonapartes, Humboldt, Lyell, Herodotus, Davis, Jerome, George Eliot, Mrs. Browning, Scott, Bulwer, Lamartine, Thackeray, and many others besides.

SCRIBNER FOR MARCH

SCRIBNER for March has a full illustrated description of the new buildings of TRINITY COLLEGE, now in course of erection at Hartford. These mark a "new departure" in the college architecture of the country. Rev. Dr. Edward Eggleston writes of the CHILD-GARDEN, with a portrait of CONTAINS FROEBEL, numerous diagrams, etc. "TRURO PARISH" gives some amusing legends in connection with the old Polk Church and its rectors, in Virginia. Albert Rhodes sketches the career and character of BALZAC, and tells a number of characteristic anecdotes of the famous writer. Dorsey Garrison, 160 OCTAVO PAGES.

We write about the struggles and successes of the celebrated ornithologist, "WILSON." Another installment of "REVOLUTIONARY LETTERS" is given. Rev. Mr. Twichell of Hartford has a paper on "CONCERNING CHARLES LAMB." Bret Harte's "GABRIEL CONROY," and Edward Everett AND IS.

Male's story, "PHILIP NOLAN'S FRIENDS," are continued. There are short stories by Edward Bellamy and George W. Cable.

IN TOPICS OF THE TIME, Dr. Holland discusses "Literary Virtue," "The Common Schools," and "Public Hall." THE OLD CABINET has something about "Baumhoeffl."

ONE OF THE LARGEST MAGAZINES

versus Baumhoeffl, and other matters. A new feature appears in HOME AND SOCIETY, namely, a number of paragraphs on rural topics by Mr. P. T. Quinn, the well-known agricultural writer, in which specific directions are given for the laying out of small places. In BRITAC-BRAC may be found a little poem by the late Professor Morse, hitherto unpublished.

EVER PUBLISHED.

The Literary World of London says: "The political, social, and literary news of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY are charged with fresh information, acute criticism, and genuine humor. We have nothing like them in any of our English Magazines."
